

PANTHER LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

SPONSORED BY THE OFFICE OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The purpose of the Panther Leadership Institute is to bring students together to learn leadership skills, engage in activities that foster ethical behavior, build an inclusive community, demonstrate social responsibility and inspire a commitment to excellence. All students are welcome to attend any and all programs offered by the Office of Student Activities.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 19, 2015, 8 p.m. Tim Mousseau

TATTOOING YOUR LEADERSHIP LEGACY

Open to all students — Gleason Performing Arts Center

What are the similarities between tattoos and leadership? Join us and find out! Tim uses humorous, insightful stories about his own body art to dare you to stop looking at leadership as a practice and instead, address it as an art form.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 26, 2015, 10 a.m.–2 p.m.

Open to the first 50 students who sign up.

*Please visit OrgSync or scan the QR code to sign up.
(Lunch provided for attendees)*

BUILDING LEADERS

Gleason Performing Arts Center

This three-hour workshop gives new, emerging and current leaders an opportunity to establish values as the foundation of leadership, examine qualities of the best leaders, and explore leadership concepts and skills in an interactive way. Participants will also tackle some of the common challenges that leaders face and develop their own definition of leadership.

THURSDAY, OCT. 29, 2015, 8 p.m. Kelli Brinker

LEAD OUT LOUD

Open to all students— P133, Evans Library

Kelli, a Florida Tech alumna, will inspire students to think about successful leadership. Kelli's session touches several leading-edge topics relevant to your professional and personal lives and is designed to enhance your skills as a leader, regardless of your role or position. Everyone has the power of influence and, as a leader, casts a shadow of impact among others. Through this interactive session, participants will acquire beneficial knowledge to become better leaders.

THURSDAY, JAN. 14, 2015, 8 p.m. Harlan Cohen

THE NAKED ROOMMATE

Open to all students— Gleason Performing Arts Center

Harlan helps students transition to life in college, singles find love, and dreamers find the confidence and courage to take risks and lead others. Harlan's session will be high-impact, hilarious and unpredictable (he answers text messages from audience members LIVE during his shows).

TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2016, 6 p.m. Kelly and Becca

SEXVERSATIONS

Open to all students— Gleason Performing Arts Center

Kelly and Becca will educate on the full spectrum of human sexuality by illustrating the importance of understanding what a healthy relationship looks like in order to help reduce sexual violence. Topics addressed include consent, communication, language, virginity, STIs, creating an inclusive community, sexual assault, bystander intervention, orgasms and more. This mildly or wildly interactive session will be original and effective, so come check it out!
