Florida Tech
Secureexam Remote Proctor Program
Remote Proctor Sharing Application

In order to be eligible to share a Remote Proctor device among colleagues you must meet the following criteria:

1) Your employer is school or state agency or social service agency

2) You are

   a. Geographically close enough to your colleagues to share a remote proctor device to take exams.

   b. Agree to pay or able to have your employer pay $60 for the Secureexam software license per year per student

   c. Agree to pay or able to have employer pay for one $150 Remote Proctor hardware device to be shared.

Name of Employer: __________________________________________________________

Employer Address: _________________________________________________________

Signature of Employer Attesting to Employment: _______________________________

Name and contact info of same ____________________________________________

-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Student Name ________________________ Student email: _______________________

Student Name ________________________ Student email: _______________________

Student Name ________________________ Student email: _______________________

Student Name ________________________ Student email: _______________________

Student Name ________________________ Student email: _______________________

Payment Preference: Credit Card or Check (Circle one)
Contact for Payment: _____________ Email: _____________ Phone: ____________

Please return this form to:
Fax: (321) 674-7050