Meal Plan Terms and Conditions

- A. ELIGIBILITY—Participants in any of the Meal Plan options must be either a currently enrolled student (or intern/co-op student from another campus officially assigned to Florida Tech) at the university. All students living in university housing are required to be on a meal plan. If a student fails to enroll in a plan, Meal Plan A1 will automatically be billed to the student's account.
- B. TERM OF AGREEMENT—This agreement is for BOTH Fall Semester 2008 and Spring Semester 2009 or any portion remaining at time of sign-up. Agreement may not be terminated or nullified prior to the official end of the academic year. The first meal of Fall Semester 2008 is dinner, Saturday, August 16, 2008, and ends with brunch, Sunday, December 14, 2008. Spring Semester 2009 meal plans start with dinner, Saturday, January 10, 2009, and ends with brunch, Sunday, May 10, 2009.

Note: FlexCash will carry forward between Fall Semester 2008 and Spring Semester 2009. Any FlexCash remaining after the end of Spring Semester 2009 will be zeroed out.

- C. MEAL PLAN LIMITS—A meal plan may be utilized only by the student to whom it is registered. Meal plans are not transferable and cannot be used by other persons. FlexCash has a daily spending limit of $25. Meal points can be used by the meal plan owner without limit, up to the weekly number of points in his/her plan. Cashiers are instructed to confiscate any ID card used by someone other than the assigned individual.
- D. SMOKING BAN—Under the Florida Clean Indoor Air Act, smoking is not permitted in any university facility.
- E. LIABILITY—The university is not liable for damage to or loss of personal property, or from failure or interruptions of public utilities. Personal property and liability insurance is highly recommended.
- F. CONDUCT IN UNIVERSITY FACILITIES—The university is dedicated to fostering and maintaining an educational environment on campus. As such, the university reserves the right to take whatever action they deem appropriate to maintain and promote an educational atmosphere and the safety of all campus residents.
- G. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES—It is each student's responsibility to safeguard the FLORIDA TECH ID CARD assigned to them. Meal plan access is controlled by the magnetic strip on the back of the card. Make sure the card is not damaged and is kept in a safe and secure place. Your FLORIDA TECH ID CARD must be presented to the cashier each time it is used. If you lose your card or it becomes damaged, report it immediately to the Campus Services Office located on the ground floor of Evans Hall. A replacement charge of $20 will be assessed if your card is lost or stolen. Students are responsible for knowing and observing university regulations and policies as set forth in official publications. Upon signing this agreement, the student shall become liable for all required payments and charges as they come due. The university reserves the right to withhold all grades and transcripts until all monies due are paid in full.

- H. RIGHT TO INSPECTION—Authorized university personnel may request to inspect your FLORIDA TECH ID CARD and check it for damage or to ascertain if it has been tampered, altered or to replace it if needed.
- I. CHANGING MEAL PLANS—Students who want to change their fall meal plan must apply at the Campus Services Office by 5 p.m., August 22, 2008. Students who want to change their spring meal plan must apply at the Campus Services Office by 5 p.m., December 12, 2008. Canceling or changing meal plans after the cut-off date will not be granted. However, students may opt to increase their meal plan at any time.
- J. CANCELLATION POLICY—Students submitting the Meal Plan Contract may cancel ONLY within the first five (5) working days after receipt by the university. There is no cancellation of the contract once the student has used their meal plan.
