

Procurement Card

Cardholder Transfers within the University

Cardholders, who transfer to a new position within the university and require the use of a procurement card as part of their new duties, will be issued a new card. Cardholders that do not require procurement card in their new position or transfer into a different department, must cancel their card.